

Our value creation model

A market leader in a sector with a significant environmental, economic and societal footprint, Gecina is committed to creating lasting value for all its stakeholders, across all the dimensions of its real estate business.

This chart presents Gecina's key resources and indicators making it possible to accurately measure value creation, in line with the IIRC Integrated Reporting recommendations.

